II. CODE OF CONDUCT

This event is planned, conducted and supervised by TTU faculty/staff, students and volunteers. All participants are responsible for their conduct to TTU personnel, event counselors and/or volunteers supervising the event. Specific guidelines for conduct include:

- A. Participants shall show respect for peers and speakers throughout the virtual event.
- B. Participants shall participate fully in all programs outlined for the event.
- C. Participants' conduct at all times shall be appropriate to the standards and image of the program. Tobacco products, drugs, alcohol, weapons and fireworks will not be tolerated at any event or activity.

Parents and participants understand and accept the responsibility for following the above guidelines, and realize that failure to do so may result in a participant not being allowed to participate in the event and/or made ineligible to participate in future events.

III. PUBLICITY RELEASE
